LITURGY OF THE WORD

Second Sunday of Easter
Thinking about the Readings

1. How has my faith been strengthen or challenged through the Easter celebration?
2. How do I feel when someone expresses his or her disbelief to me?
3. Am I able to live in the peace that Christ offers me?
4. What signs of the risen Lord's presence have I witnessed this week?

Readings for the 2nd Sunday of Easter
April 28, 2019

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter is an eye witness: the Lord is risen!

Second Reading: John 20:1-9

Three witnesses, Mary, Peter and John respond to the empty tomb.

Gospel: Luke 24:1-12

Why search for the dead? Today the dead have been raised!

 Holy Hour 9-10 – Thurs. (except holidays) after the 8:30 Mass, Divine Mercy, Rosary, Silent Prayer, Benediction.
 Litanies—After the 8:30am Mass

For Reflection:

The power of the death and resurrection of Christ draws us into this prayer of thanksgiving. Grateful for all God accomplished in Christ, we lift up heart and voice on this festive day.

Today's good news

"I rose up and am still with Thee." After His labors and His humiliations, Christ finds rest with His Father. "I am still with Thee." This is perfect beatitude. Through His cross He entered into the possession of eternal glory. Christ has gained the crown of victory; through Christ men also win their crowns of victory. Humanity was under a curse and subject to the wrath of God. Now that they have risen with Christ, their guilt has been destroyed. "I rose up and am still with Thee." The liturgy places these words in the mouth of the Church that she may pray them with Christ.

"The earth trembled and was still when God arose in judgment." The resurrection of Christ is the judgment and condemnation of those who have turned away from God. This judgment was prefigured by the angel who passed through the land of Egypt destroying the first-born of the Egyptians. The Israelites marked the doors of their houses with the blood of the paschal lamb. We are the new Israel, and "Christ our Pasch is sacrificed." We mark ourselves with His blood, which we enjoy in the Holy Eucharist. We have been pardoned, we are saved, we shall live.

"He is risen." The resurrection of Christ is a pledge of our own resurrection. It is the foundation upon which our faith rests. It is the guarantee of our redemption and God's assurance that our sins are forgiven and that we are called to eternal life. "This is the day which the Lord hath made; let us be glad and rejoice therein. Give praise to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. Alleluia." "Christ our Pasch is sacrificed. . . . The Lamb redeems the sheep. Christ, the innocent One, hath reconciled sinners to the Father."

O God, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, have conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: Very early in the morning after the Sabbath, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb to anoint Jesus' body with precious oils. The reward of this good and conscientious steward was to be among the first to know that Jesus had been raised from the dead! Alleluia!

Parish Sacrificial Giving (Regular Sunday Offering) In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, the parishioners and visitors gave $11,876.00 for the ministries of St. Teresa. Thank you for your continued support and generosity. God bless.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK?

What signs of Christ's presence radiate from this community? Where is joy found?

Alleluia Easter Message from Pastor, Father Chris He has Risen. He has Risen Indeed

 Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Alleluia! Happy Easter! Thank you for your presence and prayers as we celebrate this special feast. I especially extend a warm welcome to anyone who is visiting with us from other places or faith backgrounds. As we gather today on the holy ground of our parish campus, we celebrate the beautiful gift of life that God has blessed each of us with. If you are with us today but do not worship with our community on a regular basis, I welcome you home to the Catholic Church and extend an invitation to visit with one of the Priests, our Religious Sister or Staff to answer any questions you may have about our faith. We are here to serve you and to guide you in the journey of the beauty of our faith.

At the Easter Vigil we warmly welcome 20 new Catholics into our parish family. If you or a loved one would ever like more information about becoming Catholic, please feel free to speak with one of the Priests or Faith Formation Staff. Christian Initiation is an ongoing process in our community. We look forward to walking with you on this journey of faith.

I pray that you and your loved ones have a blessed Easter! Know that we will pray for you, your loved ones and your intentions. We may not see each other each day but may we meet each day in our prayers!

Father Richard and I wish you a beautiful and blessed Easter!

JELLY BEAN POEM

Little jelly beans
Tell a story true.
A tale of Father's love
Just for me and you.

GREEN is for the waving palms.
YELLOW is for the sun above.
BROWN is for the soft earth where People sat hearing of HIS love.
A SPECKLED bean for fish and sand.
RED for precious wine and
BLACK is for the sin
He washed from your soul and mine.
PURPLE'S for the sadness of
HIS family and His friends,
WHITE is for the glory of
The Day HE rose again.

Now that you've heard the story
You know what each color means.
The story of our Father's love
Told by some jelly beans.
So every morning take a bean
They're really very yummy.
Something for the soul, you see
And something for the tummy.

Knights of Columbus
Parish Family of the Month

Our Lady of Space Council 5667 is pleased to announce the establishment of the Family of the Month program in the St Teresa of Avila Catholic Church Parish.

The Knights of Columbus Family of the Month program supports the development of strong and vibrant families by recognizing the good work being done every day in our Parish community.

Recognized families outwardly exhibit strong ties of love and faith, exemplifying Catholic values and making meaningful contributions to the parish and church community.

Look for the announcement of our first Parish family of the month coming soon.

Notre Dame
Paris, France
Pope Francis

Pope Francis said that he shared the sadness of the French people mourning the devastation of the Cathedral of Notre-Dame and hoped it would be restored to remain a symbol of the faith of their forefathers.

"I associate myself with your sadness, as well as that of the faithful of your diocese, the inhabitants of Paris and all the French," Francis said in a message to the archbishop of Paris, Michel Aupetit.

Father Chris asks that we please pray for the people of France during this Holy Week as they deal with this devastating sadness. Many people from our church visited this beautiful and sacred place during a past pilgrimage to France. It is with great sorrow when we reflect on our time there.

*"Easter is the feast of feasts
the unalloyed joy and gladness of all Christians"*

In the very center of the Mass, the great prayer of thanksgiving, from the first words of the Preface, expresses the unrivaled motive for this joy: if it is right to praise You, Lord, at all times, how much more so should we not glorify You on this day when Christ our Passover was sacrificed, for He is the true Lamb who took away the sins of the world, who by His Death destroyed our death and by His Resurrection restored our life. Easter means, then, Redemption obtained — sin destroyed, death overcome, divine life brought back to us, the resurrection of our body which is promised immortality. With such a certitude, we should banish all trace of sadness.

Haec dies quam fecit Dominus: "This is the day which the Lord has made." Throughout the octave we shall sing of the unequalled joy which throws open eternity to us. Every Sunday will furnish a reminder of it, and from Sunday to Sunday, from year to year, the Easters of this earth will lead us to that blessed day on which Christ has promised that He will come again with glory to take us with Him into the kingdom of His Father.

For All the Little Children: A Story About "Jesus and the Easter Bunny"

There once was a little bunny that lived near a town. The older bunnies reminded him to be careful around people so he always watched them from a distance. One day he watched what he thought was a parade as a man was riding a donkey through the town. All the people were happy to see the man and treated him very special. A few days later he saw another parade but instead the man was carrying a cross and had a crown of thorns on his head. Everyone was sad and many cried. He watched as they made the man go up a hill where there were three crosses at the top. After all the people left, he got closer and saw the same man on one of the crosses. The women kneeling below looked very sad. He watched as they took him down and carried him to a cave and knew that the man must be dead as he was covered with a sheet.

A few days later, the bunny went back to the cave but he was frightened as he heard the rock in front of the cave making a loud, trembling noise. A very beautiful light came from the cave opening. When the cave opened a man came out covered in white so bright you could hardly see. The bunny was very surprised as it was the man he had seen dead on the cross. But now he seemed to be alive again! The man came over to the bunny and petted him and told him not to be afraid. The man told the bunny that he was glad he was there to greet him and therefore he wanted him to bring happiness and joy to all the little children. He told him that day would be called Easter and that every year he was to bring jelly beans, candy and Easter eggs to the children. After all, the bunny was the first living thing to see the risen CHRIST and then was called the EASTER BUNNY!

Celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord

Easter Sunday

Acts 10:34a, 37-43

All Is New

“What’s new?” That is what we ask when we want to hear a story. Stories celebrate the great moments of life. When you hear one, it fills you with delight. When you tell one, you fulfill an inner desire to share what has shaped your life anew.

After Jesus rose from the dead, the disciples did not wait for people to ask, “What’s new?” They proudly proclaimed it: “God raised Jesus on the third day and granted that he be visible to us witnesses.” Now, that is new!

If you have kept a good Lent, you know very well what is new with you. You are what is new! You have faced your sin, admitted your fault, and accepted your dependence upon God’s help. You have prayed and fasted with the community. You have loved your neighbor. Because you have emptied a place inside yourself, you created a space for God’s Spirit to enter. Christ is risen indeed, and he has appeared to you! You are now a witness of all that God can do.

This Easter Day, tell your story. Tell your faith. Let joy radiate from your face and loosen your tongue! Jesus lives!
