Lord, for you have rescued me.*

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles. The Apostles' failure to obey the Sanhedrin is obviously not due to pride or to their not knowing their place; the Sanhedrin is imposing a ruling which would have them go against God's law and their own conscience.

The second reading is from the Book of Revelation. The host of angels around the throne act as a kind of guard of honor proclaiming the sublime perfection of Christ the Lamb; they list seven attributes which all point to the fact that he has everything that belongs to the Godhead.

The Gospel is from St. John. The primary purpose in recounting this appearance of the Risen Christ to his Apostles, was to stress the actual conferring of the Primacy on Peter. From this very first meeting with Christ at the Jordan the Savior had told him that his name Simon bar-Jonah would be changed to Cephas, which means Rock. Some year or so later, at Caesarea Philippi, this change took place when Christ said to Simon, "You are (Peter) Rock, and upon this Rock I will build my Church . . . and I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven".

There were Christians who refused obedience to him, but not one of them claimed for himself the privilege of Peter and his successors. That the Church, the society founded by Christ to bring salvation to the world, should need a visible Head on earth, needs no further (and has not stronger) proof than that Christ himself saw it as necessary and arranged it accordingly. The power of the keys, given to Peter, were more necessary in the second and succeeding generations than in Peter's day, when the other Apostles were still alive. When Christ laid the foundation of his Church on a Rock, it was to be a Rock that would last as long as the Church. Peter died, but Peter's office will last until the last man goes to heaven.

The Sheep and the Lambs of the twentieth and thirtieth centuries have as much need of pasturage and protection as, if not more than, those of the first century. Christ, our Savior and our Good Shepherd, provided for all time.

"When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus." For the third time Jesus appears to His disciples and on the lake of Genesareth renews the miraculous draught of fishes.

The Fathers did not fail to see in the one hundred and fifty-three great fishes that Peter brought to land the neophytes born to supernatural life in the waters of baptism and brought by Peter to the feet of the risen Christ.

Third Sunday of Easter

"Using Your Talent in Thanksgiving to Our Lord"

For those that attended the Holy Thursday services, you may have noticed the beautiful cloth on the altar. With love and devotion to Our Lord, Ms. Anna Zbiegien, mother of Marg Hatina created this crocheted masterpiece at the age of 80. It took 500 yards of yarn and about 6 weeks for the finished cloth. At one point, Ms. Zbiegien noticed that she missed a stitch and pulled out the bottom half as "it had to be perfect and without a flaw".

When finished Ms. Zbiegien shared this 24 square foot Last Supper needlework, she shared it with 8 her children who lived in four states. She had won a variety of awards for her needlework including 1st place for a Lighthouse she had created.

Ms. Zbiegien stated that her work was not about awards but for thanksgiving for her God-given talent. Her thought was "to thank God everyday in your life by showing appreciation through your handiwork".

We are fortunate that Marg has shared this beautiful creation of the Last Supper with our church each Holy Thursday.

From the Desk of Bishop Noonan

The month of May is a month set aside for the celebration of First Communion. Soon our young children will come before the table of the Lord, eagerly awaiting the Bread of Life to be offered to them. One of my friend's children said before receiving her First Communion, "You know, mom, I am hungry too."

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI recently stated in an essay, "The Second Vatican Council was rightly focused on returning this Sacrament of the Presence of the Body and Blood of Christ, of the Presence of His Person, of His Passion, Death and Resurrection, to the center of Christian life and the very existence of the Church. In part, this really has come about, and we should be most grateful to the Lord for it." I am grateful for our parents and guardians who do make living as Jesus' disciples a priority for their families.

We also celebrate graduations of eighth graders, high school students, and college students whom we form knowing the love of God that they too participate in sharing His Peace with one another.

Peace be with you! May we extend that Peace in all that we do. May Mary, Mother of God, watch over us in service of humanity, of peace, of the spread of God's Kingdom!

Usher Announcement

Because of its importance, the role of the Usher has had a long history in the Catholic Church. Referred to as Porters in the third century, ushers used to guard the church doors against intruders.

Today, Ushers serve the opposite function by being first to welcome parishioners and visitors to Mass.

Depending on the parish, they also assist in a variety of other ways.

The Pastoral Council would like to hold a brief meeting of ALL Ushers and anyone interested in being an Usher, following the 5PM Mass on Saturday, June 22, 2019 in the church.

3RD SUNDAY OF Easter

Third Sunday of Easter

Revelation 5:11-14

Slain and Victorious Lamb

Easter celebrates the resurrection of Jesus, and it also proclaims the church's faith in the resurrection of Christians. Death looms as the fearful fate of every human life, but Easter removes the finality of death and opens a broader vision. It is hard to imagine that one single event could have such an effect on human history, but that was the meaning of Jesus' resurrection.

An image from the Book of Revelation illustrates the point. John saw a huge crowd of angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. There they sang praise to a Lamb—a dead lamb. In the history of animals, no dead lamb has ever left much of a mark on the world. But this one did. The Lamb is Jesus—slain, but standing, and receiving the praise of all living things.

A lamb first entered our religious tradition as a symbol of Passover. On the night before Israel's exodus from Egypt, faithful Jewish families slaughtered a lamb and rubbed its blood on their doorposts. They were spared the worst of the plagues, the death of the firstborn. That plague finally forced Pharaoh's hand and set the people free.

Jesus Christ appears in Revelation as a slain Lamb. His blood protects us from the harm of death and sets us free from sin. Through his death and resurrection, he has brought us forgiveness and opened a way for us through death to life.
