LITURGY OF THE WORD

Fifth Sunday of Easter
Thinking about the Readings

1. What does my faith community mean to me? Is it a burden or a support?
2. What are some ways I show my love to my friends? To my family? To my parish community?
3. What is the most loving thing someone has done for me recently?
4. Who is most in need of my love?

Readings for the 5th Sunday of Easter
May 19, 2019

First Reading: Acts 14:21-27

The missionaries Paul and Barnabas complete their journey.

Second Reading: Revelation: 21:1-5a

Like bride and groom, God pledges everlasting love.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a

Jesus' followers live by a new commandment: love one another.

DEVOTIONS

 Holy Days – Same as Sundays (7:30am, 9:30am & 11:30am)
 Holy Day Vigil – 7:00pm
 Fatima Sundays—Every 3rd Sunday of the Month from May through October, 3-4:30pm.
 Litany of Loreto in honor of Mary: Mon.—Sat. during May Litany of the Sacred Heart of Jesus: Mon.—Sat. during June Litanies—After the 8:30am Mass

For Reflection:

Do I hear Jesus' voice in the voices of those I encounter?

Through whom is Jesus speaking to me?

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from Acts and the event described takes place in the middle of St. Paul's first missionary journey. Paul and Barnabas quote Isaiah 49:6 in support of their decision to preach to the Gentiles. The Isaiah text referred to Christ, ...but now Paul and Barnabas apply it to themselves because the Messiah is "light for the Gentiles" through the preaching of the Apostles, for they are conscious of speaking in Christ's name and on his authority.

The second reading is from the Book of Revelation 7. Last week we heard St. John describing his vision of the heavenly liturgy where he saw the Lamb of God in the Holy of Holies in His perpetual offering to God, the heavenly offering of Jesus Himself which we join at every Mass. Today we join St. John as he again views this heavenly liturgy and describes the Church in heaven (what we call the Church Triumphant) as it glorifies God.

The Gospel is from John . This Sunday is often called "Good Shepherd Sunday." Jesus intended the beautiful parable of the Good Shepherd with its many consoling truths and promises for men of every century, including the twentieth. We are all too prone to evaluate the words of the Gospel in an exclusively historical sense. The liturgy's primary aim is to portray the present, not the past, to give grace and life along with history. You must, therefore, give the parable a present day context, apply it personally. After each sentence stop and say: Christ is doing this today – and to help me. The parable brings to our attention three consoling truths: Christ gives His life for His sheep; He remains with them constantly through the bond of grace; He will not rest content until there be but one flock and one shepherd.

The words He spoke will never die. "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but My words shall not pass away." Christ's words are as pregnant with life now as when they were first spoken. They give us the mind of our Good Shepherd as He instructs, warns, and consoles us; they are the words of a father, a mother, a brother, a friend, a judge. Once upon a time Christ's words performed miracles, they have not lost their power! "Young man, I say to you: arise. This day you shall be with Me in paradise." Treasure Christ's words most highly.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: Paul and Barnabas encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

Parish Sacrificial Giving (Regular Sunday Offering) In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, the parishioners and visitors gave $12,661.39.00 for the ministries of St. Teresa. School collection amounted to $2,311.00. Thank you for your continued support and generosity. God bless.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK?

Who needs to have their tears wiped away?

Blessings and Best Wishes to Father Chris on the 34th Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood.

Knights of Columbus Parish Family of the Month

Our Lady of Space Council 5667 is pleased to announce the establishment of the Family of the Month program in the St Teresa of Avila Catholic Church Parish.

The Knights of Columbus Family of the Month program supports the development of strong and vibrant families by recognizing the good work being done every day in our Parish community.

Recognized families outwardly exhibit strong ties of love and faith, exemplifying Catholic values and making meaningful contributions to the parish and church community.

Look for the announcement of our first Parish family of the month coming soon.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Loving God, as a mother gives life and nourishment to her children, so you watch over your Church. Bless these women, that they may be strengthened as Christian mothers. Let the example of their faith and love shine forth. Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect. Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Father Chris and Father Richard would like to offer prayer and blessings to all Mother's. Some women have lost their mother or child or could not have a child. Some have had many children or maybe one. But we all have had a mother and can honor her or her memory today. God Bless our Mother's today and every day.

World Day of Prayer

World Day of Prayer will be observed on Sunday, May 12, 2019, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life.

Usher Announcement

Because of its importance, the role of the Usher has had a long history in the Catholic Church. Referred to as Porters in the third century, ushers used to guard the church doors against intruders.

Today, Ushers serve the opposite function by being first to welcome parishioners and visitors to Mass.

Depending on the parish, they also assist in a variety of other ways.

The Pastoral Council would like to hold a brief meeting of ALL Ushers and anyone interested in being an Usher, following the 5PM Mass on Saturday, June 22, 2019 in the church.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

Dressed for Heaven

We do not know what we will look like in heaven. At the resurrection of the body, will we have the body of our youth? Will we look as we do when we die? These are natural questions, but eternal life will be far greater than what we can now imagine. When we are freed from time and place, we will enter the mysterious presence of God in ways more perfect than we can know.

Still, people use metaphors to envision eternal life, and the Book of Revelation is no exception. John sees a great multitude standing before the throne and the Lamb, “wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.” John saw heaven in a vision of vesture and accessories.

White robes clothe heavenly beings in several passages of the New Testament. Jesus’ clothes turn white at the transfiguration. Angels clothed in white appear at the resurrection. Heavenly beings throughout the Book of Revelation wear white. This is one reason why we wear white on the day of our baptism, and why we cover a Christian’s coffin with a white cloth. We are clothed already in the uniform of heaven.

The festive palm branch is a sign of the victory of eternal life. Artists throughout the ages have depicted saints carrying palms.

We do not know what we will wear or carry, but we can expect that the Lamb will shepherd us to springs of life-giving water.
