to give thanks to you.*

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from the Book of Sirach. The author was a wise and pious Jew who lived about 200 B.C. His purpose in writing was to encourage his fellow Jews to live devout lives following the Law of Moses and the pious traditions handed down to them. He treats of the individual, of the family and of the community, of their relations with one another and with God. In these verses he emphasizes how a man's speech shows up his character and his religious outlook.

The second reading is from the first Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians. St. Paul is speaking of the resurrection of the dead which the death and resurrection of Christ have won for us. In these verses St. Paul ends his discussion on death and resurrection with a hymn of triumph.

The Gospel is taken from St. Luke. These statements of Christ spoken centuries ago to his fellow Jews of Palestine are as true and as crystal clear today as they were in the year 29 A.D. They are the words of him who was the Truth. They are put before us today for there are few amongst us who do not need to be reminded of their lesson. We are all so prone to see the neighbor's faults and shortcomings and so inclined to cover up or deny our own.

We are often lacking in the basic knowledge of the teachings of our faith and yet we can find a thousand faults in the official doctrine of the teaching Church. We can all criticize minor defects in our neighbor's Christian behavior whilst our own Christian way of living is giving far greater scandal.

In other words, most if not all of us, are to some degree hypocrites. We pretend to be what we are not, but should be. How seldom have I honestly examined my own conscience to see my own more serious defects and tried to correct them?"

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ash Wednesday March 5th

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the Season of Lent. It is a season of penance, reflection, and fasting which prepares us for Christ's Resurrection on Easter Sunday, through which we attain redemption. Ash Wednesday is one of the most popular and important holy days in the liturgical calendar. Ash Wednesday opens Lent, a season of fasting and prayer.

Ash Wednesday takes place 46 days before Easter Sunday, and is chiefly observed by Catholics, although many other Christians observe it too.

Ash Wednesday comes from the ancient Jewish tradition of penance and fasting. The practice includes the wearing of ashes on the head. The ashes symbolize the dust from which God made us. As the priest applies the ashes to a person's forehead, he speaks the words: "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

Alternatively, the priest may speak the words, "Repent and believe in the Gospel." Ashes also symbolize grief, in this case, grief that we have sinned and caused division from God.

Writings from the Second-century Church refer to the wearing of ashes as a sign of penance.

Priests administer ashes during Mass and all are invited to accept the ashes as a visible symbol of penance. Even non-Christians and the excommunicated are welcome to receive the ashes. The ashes are made from blessed palm branches.

It is important to remember that Ash Wednesday is a day of penitential prayer and fasting. Feasting is highly inappropriate. Small children, the elderly and sick are exempt from this observance. It is not required that a person wear the ashes for the rest of the day, and they may be washed off after Mass. However, many people keep the ashes as a reminder until the evening.

Please note the times for Mass and distribution of ashes on Ash Wednesday

8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

The Blunted Sting of Death

Death is inevitable but unpredictable. It will come on its own time. It takes some of us old, others young. It does not pay attention to schedules. We have plans, but death may have some others. Some people reach the end of their days in happiness that their life's work is done. Others wish they had more time to complete what they began or to right some wrongs. We have been writing our life, and death will close the book.

Death is the ultimate threat to hold over a living being. Many of the early Christians suffered persecution for their faith. They were becoming too influential in society, causing too many problems for authorities. Many of them died a horrible death, just as Jesus had. Some may have wondered if they had lived in vain.

Perhaps Paul saw his own death coming. Tradition holds that he was beheaded outside of Rome. Paul's faith in Christ was firm. He believed in the Resurrection of Jesus and that the same glorious future lay ahead for him— however he died.

Paul's bravura about death comes out in a letter to the Corinthians. "Death is swallowed up in victory. Where O death is your victory?" Paul taunts, "Where O death is your sting". But through Jesus Christ, we have overcome the sting of the old law, sin and death. For the faithful Christian, whether you die old or young "your labor is not in vain".

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the desk of Father Chris: Students from our parish that attend Melbourne Central Catholic were recently asked to write a note to the Pastor. These are a sample of those received. Thank you to the students for the heartfelt words.....Father Chris

Dear Father Chris,
thank you for helping guide my Catholic faith. Your homilies help to understand the writings of the bible on a much deeper level. You have a good way to connect it with everyone listening.
Your cheerful attitude toward everyone really helps to understand just how to spread the faith.
God bless, Aidan

Father Chris,
The first time I went to St Teresa's Catholic Church I was enchanted by the beauty of the church, the architecture and the choir and the passion shown from within.
I loved listening to your homilies. You stood out from the rest of the other priests and made the times I went to church interesting.
Take care, Juan

Dear Father Chris,
For Catholic Schools Week, MCC told us to write letters to the priests in the area. I of course wanted to write to you as I grew up with you celebrating Mass.
I will forever remember going to Adoration and the Spanish rosary and being able to come bring the Monstrance back to the Tabernacle with you afterwards.
Thank you for the foundation of my Catholic faith which has led me to where I am today. I hope you are doing well and you will always be in my prayers.
Love, Natalia
