For Reflection:

To strengthen us during this season of fasting, the Lord spreads the eucharistic feast before us. Let us give thanks with joy this day that we are privileged to begin another lent.

Today's good news

The First Reading is from the Book of Deuteronomy (26:4-10). This passage recounts the reason why the Israelites (Jews) were required to offer the "first fruits" of their harvest as a thanksgiving offering to God. It was an annual remembrance of God's delivering them from slavery in Egypt. God watched over His earthly family like a "father." Again and again He delivered them from impossible situations and blessed them with the Promised Land. He will do similar good things for us, if we are committed to His service.

The Second Reading is taken from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (10:8-13). Here Paul is repeating Moses' message (from Deuteronomy 30:10-14) to listen and obey the teachings of God and His ways. This is the beginning of Paul's discourse on "justification" and faith in action. He states that "if we believe in our heart that Jesus is Lord, and confess that belief in our speech and show it by our actions, then we have nothing to worry about." Putting our sincere beliefs into action is a sure way to salvation

The Gospel Reading is from the Gospel of St. Luke (4:1-13). In this passage, we have the familiar story of Jesus being tempted by the devil. When reading or hearing this passage from the pulpit, we must remember that this is the human Jesus who has just spent a long retreat in the desert with no food or water. He is being tempted directly by the evil one, something that most of us will never experience. This is an extreme test of spiritual endurance, fidelity to God and resistance to pressure for the glories of this world. Although Jesus was at a weak point of human endurance, He was filled with the Holy Spirit and was able to cast off the enticements of the devil. The Holy Spirit will give us that same power if we call upon Him in times of struggle or temptation.

Lent is a great time for us to review our spiritual strengths and weaknesses, our struggles and our blessings and to ask for God's grace and guidance to get back onto the right track. Our problems and temptations are not the same as those of the Israelites or of the human Jesus; nevertheless, the same Holy Spirit is there to protect us from "dashing our foot against a stone." All of the above readings challenge us to seriously consider how we are going to observe this Lenten Season.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: Today's first reading describes the offering of first fruits the people of Israel were to present to the Lord in thanksgiving for their deliverance from Egypt and the gift of the Promised Land. Is my offering at today's Mass an appropriate response to the many blessings the Lord has given me?

Parish Sacrificial Giving (Regular Sunday Offering) In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, the parishioners and visitors gave $14,098.00 for the ministries of St. Teresa. School collection amounted to $4,132.00. Thank you for your continued support and generosity. God bless.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK?

How do parishioners go to their deserts seeking encounters with God?

Month of March
Dedicated to Saint Joseph

The month of March is dedicated to St. Joseph. The first five days fall during the liturgical season known as Ordinary Time which is represented by the liturgical color green. Green, the symbol of hope, is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection.

First Sunday of Lent

A Time of Penance and Promise

Here and there in the stark March landscape, a few plants and trees are beginning to give evidence of the new life that winter's frost and chill had concealed from our eyes. The Church's vibrant new life has been obscured, too, by the austerity of the penitential season of Lent. But that life is indisputable, and it will burgeon forth on Easter as Christ coming forth from his tomb!

During this month we will continue our journey to the cross with our acts of penitence. We will reflect on our mortality ("Remember man thou art dust") and the shortness of life ("and to dust thou shall return"). We will heed the call, "Now is the acceptable time, now is 'the day of salvation (2 Corinthians 6:2)." Just like Our Lord's earthly life every moment of our lives is leading up to the last moment—when for eternity we will either go to God or suffer the fires of hell. During this month we will go from the suffering of Good Friday to the joy of Easter Sunday. We will trade the purple of penance for the white of victory and resurrection.

Let us not tire of doing our good works and penance, but continue with the enthusiasm of the catechumens on their way to Easter and Baptism. May our Lenten observance be a joyful journey — and not a forced march.

As the weeks of Lent progress let us not tire of doing our good works and penance, but continue with the enthusiasm of the catechumens on their way to Easter and Baptism. May our Lenten observance be a joyful journey — and not a forced march.

Why Pray the Stations of the Cross?

8 Reasons from Pope Francis

The Stations of the Cross are an ancient tradition in the Catholic Church going back to the fourth century when Christians went on pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Like many of our Catholic traditions, the Stations of the Cross can be rich, deep, and meaningful, but at the same time we can lose sight of their significance and how to relate them to our everyday lives.

Continuing the idea of Pope Francis as our spiritual director this Lent, here are 8 reasons from our Holy Father on why we should pray the Stations of the Cross.

- 1. They Allow Us to Place Our Trust in Him
"Only in Christ crucified and risen can we find salvation and redemption."
- 2. They Put Us into the Story
Jesus is looking at you now and is asking you: do you want to help me carry the Cross?
- 3. They Remind Us That Jesus Suffers with Us
The Cross of Christ bears the suffering and the sin of mankind, including our own.
- 4. They Compel Us to Action
But the Cross of Christ invites us also to allow ourselves to be smitten by his love, teaching us always to look upon others with mercy and tenderness, especially those who suffer, who are in need of help, who need a word or a concrete action."
- 5. They Helps Us Make a Decision for or Against Christ
If I embrace his love then I am saved, if I refuse it, then I am condemned, not by him, but my own self.
- 6. They Reveal God's Response to Evil in the World
"The Cross is the word through which God has responded to evil in the world. Sometimes it may seem as though God does not react to evil, as if he is silent."
- 7. They Give Us the Certainty of God's Love for Us
"What has the Cross given to those who have gazed upon it and to those who have touched it? What has the Cross left in each one of us?"
- 8. They Guide Us from the Cross to the Resurrection
O, Our Jesus, guide us from the Cross to the resurrection and teach us that evil shall not have the last word, but love, mercy and forgiveness. O Christ, help us to exclaim again: "Yesterday I was crucified with Christ; today I am glorified with Him.

Stations of the Cross are held at 7PM each Friday of Lent

First Sunday of Lent

Deuteronomy 26:4-10

Offering the Fruits of Our Labor

Very few people pay their taxes willingly. We try to find ways around paying income tax. We often contribute to charities, not because we will feel good about supporting their cause, but because our gift is tax-deductible. Some people give only to save.

Imagine a different kind of society. Imagine a place where people know their taxes provide good roads, good schools, a fire department, and a recycling service. Imagine people believing so strongly in these goals that they gladly pay their taxes, and even contribute additional funds. Imagine that as they pay taxes each year, each person makes a statement renewing citizenship, professing a belief in the community's goals and reverence for its past. In such a society, individuals would care more for the community than for themselves.

In the Old Testament, Moses instructed the people to perform this kind of action. They prepared a basket of their first fruits and brought it to their religious leader. There they made a statement of faith, beginning with, "My father was a wandering Aramean." They recounted the history of God's interventions in the lives of their ancestors. They acknowledged their dependence on the faith of their parents and on the goodness of God. Consequently, they brought their gift in gratitude.

Did everyone really do what Moses asked? If they were like us, probably not. But just imagine. Imagine if we did this as a society. Or as a church.

Focus On the Cross

As we focus on the crucifixion of Christ during this time of Lent, we often see the letters INRI above the head of Jesus.

INRI stems from the Latin phrase 'Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum' meaning 'Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews'.

This was the notice Pontius Pilate nailed over Jesus as he lay dying on the cross. (Latin does not use a 'J' and interchanges with an 'I')

It was common for the Romans to hang a "titulus" or sign above the crucified to indicate the charges against him. scripture says that Pilate put the charges in Latin, Greek and Hebrew.

In fact, the remnants of the titulus which hung above the Savior's head, as he offered Himself upon the Cross, is kept in the Church of Santa Croce in Jerusalem in Rome.
