For Reflection:

How wonderful is the Lord's name in all the earth. On the Lord's day, around this table of sacrifice, we give thanks to the Lord, our good and gentle Creator

Today's good news

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: Today's psalm reminds us that we have been crowned with glory and honor and given rule over the work's of God's hands. But we must be good stewards, for the Lord will surely hold us accountable for the use of God's gifts!

The Most Holy Trinity

A Message to All Fathers from Our Pastor, Father Chris

I believe that being a Christian Father is one of the highest callings any man can ever achieve in his life.

Even as God chose Mary to be the one who would give birth to the Son of God, so in His mighty providence He chose Joseph to be a FATHER to Jesus and to raise Him into manhood.

Fathers are not only needed for the physical act of CONCEIVING a child; they are also needed for the spiritual act of RAISING a child. This child, Jesus, was conceived in the womb of Mary "by the Holy Ghost" – a miracle took place so technically, there was no need for a man to be involved in the conception. But a man WAS still needed to fill the role of father in Jesus' childhood.

So, Joseph was chosen. And just as God had looked for a godly young woman to bring forth the child, so He looked for a godly man to be the father. And what an inspiring model of fatherhood Joseph was.

Fathers have a role of great responsibility in the lives of their children. In many ways, earthly fathers are representatives of the Heavenly Father in that they are to love, protect, and provide for their families. The greatest responsibility of a father is to live a godly life before his children, so that they, too, will grow up to be godly men and women who know and love the Lord.

Father Gabriel and I will be praying for all our fathers with our Fathers day Novena this week. We pray that you have the courage and strength to lead and guide your children through good and hard times.

God Bless you and give you the spiritual guidance to be a good dad.

Happy Father's Day

The Pope's Intention for June

That the world might grow in compassion

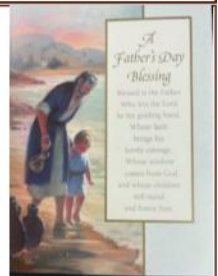

Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Women's Semi-Silent Retreat: Women of Faith: The Four Female Doctors of the Church – Led by Jen Settle, August 15-17

The title "doctor of the church" is granted to saints whose writings and teachings are of particular importance.

Considered to be altogether holy, heroic, and learned, doctors of the church have advanced the church's knowledge of God, especially of Christ.

Of the 37 saints who have been formally proclaimed a doctor of the church, four have been women: St. Hildegard of Bingen, St. Catherine of Siena, St. Teresa of Avila, and St. Thérèse of Lisieux.

Join other women of faith from August 15 at 4 p.m. to August 17 at noon, as we retreat into silence, sharing, and reflection on what Pope Saint John Paul II calls the "feminine genius" of women, the spirituality of these four remarkable female saints, and their inspiration for our spiritual life.

GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD THAT HE GAVE

JOHN 3:16

The Most Holy Trinity

Romans 5:1-5

Can Do

A lot of us try to hide our afflictions. If we hurt, we don't want people to know. If we're sick, we don't want word to get out. We don't want to attract attention. We prefer to keep the illusion that we are well, and others need not be concerned.

How strange it is then to hear Paul say of Christians, "We even boast of our afflictions." To Paul, his afflictions merely went to show how strong the power of God was. God could work through human afflictions in the miraculous way that someone in a wheelchair can still win a race, one who cannot see can still cook dinner, someone with hearing loss can still write music, and someone terminally ill can still teach and inspire. Sometimes the affliction itself becomes a means of showing how mighty one's inner strength really is.

In Paul's case, the afflictions were obstacles placed in the way of his preaching the gospel. The word of God was still able to spread in spite of these setbacks. Consequently, Paul says, "affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint."

Paul is never disappointed because the Holy Trinity takes care of him. He has peace with God through Jesus Christ, and the love of God has been poured out into him through the Holy Spirit. No wonder he could boast of afflictions.
