Return to Me

Let us embark on the journey together, as Church, by receiving Ashes
— we too will become ashes — and keeping our gaze fixed on the Crucifix.

He, loving us, invites us to be reconciled with God and to return to him, in order to find ourselves again.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Sunday in Lent Thinking about the Readings

1. Do I ever act as tempter to someone else?
2. What choices for life and goodness have I recently made?
3. What helps me say no to temptation?
4. What extra efforts will I make during this lent?

Readings for 1st Sunday in Lent February 22, 2026

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9

The Lord planted a garden in Eden.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19

In Adam all die. In Christ all live.

Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11

Jesus fasted 40 days and 40 nights.

DEVOTIONS

Liturgy of the Hours (Morning Prayer) at 8:10am (before the 8:30 mass), Mon.-Thu. (unless no school on Fri.)
Recitation of the Rosary: Mon. – Sat., 9am in the Chapel.
Novena – Our Lady of Perpetual Help Tuesday, after the 8:30am Mass.
Spanish Adoration & Prayer Group, Thursdays 6:00pm
Holy Hour 9-10 – Thurs. (except holidays) after the 8:30 Mass, Divine Mercy, Rosary, Silent Prayer, Benediction.
Holy Days – Same as Sundays (7:30am, 9:30am & 11:30am)
Holy Day Vigil – 7:00pm Litanies—After the 8:30am Mass

For Reflection:

True and loyal service of God therefore begins in the heart and has its value from this interior disposition. Keeping the ten commandments is our way of proving to God that we are grateful, obedient and loyal to him who gave us all we have and who has promised us future gifts infinitely greater still.

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from Sirach 15:15-20. Today's reading comes from the section of Sirach's writing on man's free will and responsibility.

The second reading is from St. Paul 1 Corinthians 2:6-10. Last week we heard Saint Paul address how his preaching illustrates the fact that man's strength and wisdom are nothing compared to those of God. Today we hear him tell of the true wisdom of God.

The Gospel is from St. Matthew 5:17-37. In this Sermon on the Mount, we have various sayings of Christ, actually spoken on different occasions. Matthew, in his systematic manner, has gathered these sayings into one continuous discourse here. This makes it easier for his readers, who were Jewish converts, to grasp the new order of salvation as inaugurated by Christ. They knew the ten commandments, but they knew them as their rabbis had taught them. These rabbis, for the most part Pharisees, put all the stress on the letter of the law and on its external observance. Christ's opening statement, that the attitude of his followers towards the commandments (and other precepts of the law) must be different, and superior to that of the scribes and Pharisees, clearly indicates how Christianity must differ from, and supersede, Judaism.

Christ is not abolishing the ten commandments, but he is demanding of his followers a more perfect, a more sincere, fulfillment of them. Avoiding murder therefore is not enough; the true Christian must remove any inclination to murder by building up true, brotherly love for all men in his heart.

We must not only not injure our neighbor or fellowman in his person, or in his character, but we must be ever ready to help him and prevent injury to him, whenever and wherever we can. We must not only not commit adultery, but must also develop a Christian respect and esteem for purity, the virtue which will preserve us not only from adultery but even from thoughts of adultery, or any other abuse of our sexual gifts given us by God for his sublime purpose.

We must be truthful always, and men of our word. This virtue is not only necessary for man's salvation, but is the basis of rational intercourse between men in civilized society. While our civil courts still deem it necessary to impose oaths on contestants and witnesses (since they have, unfortunately, to take account of the liars and deceivers who still are a menace to society), the truthful man need not be afraid of insulting or dishonoring God by calling him as his guarantor, if asked to do so.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: Stewardship involves more than just the gift we bring to the altar. Today's readings say clearly that it is fidelity to God's law that makes our offering acceptable.

Parish Sacrificial Giving (Regular Sunday Offering) In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, the parishioners and visitors gave $15,677.00 for the ministries of St. Teresa. Thank you for your continued support and generosity. God bless.

SCHOOL NEWS

St. Teresa
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

Catholic Schools Week 2026

Catholic Schools Week 2026 was a big success!
Thank you to our students, staff, and families for making Catholic Schools Week such a joyful celebration!

QUESTION OF THE WEEK?

Are there people who need to be reconciled with one another within the parish community?

Season of Lent

Lent prepares the faithful to celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection.

It is a time for reflection and spiritual renewal, a time to examine one's relationships with God and with others.

The Church also calls Catholics to a spirit of penance, above all fasting, prayer and almsgiving, "which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others"

Eucharistic Adoration

We will have an all day Eucharistic Adoration February 19th from 9am to 6:30pm in the Chapel.

There will be the Spanish Holy Hour and Exposition from 5:30-6:30pm.

If anyone would like to sign up for an hour, please call Cheryl Kassack at: 321-383-1312 (H) 321-795-1456 (C)

Congratulations to all our students in grades 3rd through 8th for their amazing Science Fair projects!
A special congratulations to this year's winners—you did an outstanding job! A big thank you to everyone who signed up and volunteered their time to judge our students' incredible projects. We couldn't have done it without you!

Friday Activities During Lent

- ✂ Stations of the Cross at 7 PM.
  - ✂ Followed by our Lenten Mission discussion by Father Chris.
  - ✂ Topic: The first talk will be on Friday 2/20. The Topic is: "The Theology of the Cross: Power in Weakness"
  - ✂ Confessions at 6 PM
  - ✂ On Fridays during Lent we have soup suppers from 4:30- 6:30PM
- Please join us for this event each Friday during Lent. Enjoy time with others prior to the Stations of the Cross.

Focus On the Cross

As we focus on the crucifixion of Christ during this time of Lent, we often see the letters
INRI above the head of Jesus.

INRI stems from the Latin phrase 'Iesus Nazarenus Rex Iudaeorum' meaning 'Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews'.

This was the notice Pontius Pilate nailed over Jesus as he lay dying on the cross. (Latin does not use a 'J' and interchanges with an 'I')

It was common for the Romans to hang a "titulus" or sign above the crucified to indicate the charges against him.
scripture says that Pilate put the charges in Latin, Greek and Hebrew.

In fact, the remnants of the titulus which hung above the Savior's head, as he offered Himself upon the Cross, is kept in the Church of Santa Croce in Jerusalem in Rome.

Sermon on the Mount Beatitudes

These are the blessings that Jesus talked about in the Sermon on the Mount, and they offer a code, one which is inviting rather than prohibitive:

- ✂ Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- ✂ Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
- ✂ Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.
- ✂ Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.
- ✂ Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
- ✂ Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.
- ✂ Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
- ✂ Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
- ✂ Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

The Three Pillars of Lent

PRAY

Find a quiet, private place to be alone with your thoughts and God.
Try praying a little longer during Lent than what you normally do.

FAST

Think about what you eat and drink, and also why. Try to make healthy choices and support local producers. Thoughtful self-denial cleanses both the body and spirit.

GIVE ALMS

Share what you have with a generous spirit. Acts of justice and compassion bless both the giver and the recipient.

About Fasting

Fasting among Christians is a penitential discipline intended to open our hearts to God and others, a meaning of purification and spiritual liberation, a witness of the depth of our Faith.

The law of abstinence from meat binds those who are 14 and older; Meatless Fridays are a timeless tradition in the Catholic Church.

The simple act of abstaining from meat joins us to the sacrificial heart of Jesus. We encourage every parishioner to adopt this penitential practice on the Fridays during Lent.

The law of fasting binds those from 18 to 59 years of age. Two smaller meals are allowed as needed, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

Only one full meal is allowed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday which are Universal days of Fasting and Abstinence.

Lent prepares the faithful to celebrate the Paschal Mystery of Christ's suffering, death and resurrection.

It is a time for reflection and spiritual renewal, a time to examine one's relationships with God and with others.

The Church also calls Catholics to a spirit of penance, above all fasting, prayer and almsgiving, "which express conversion in relation to oneself, to God, and to others"

6TH SUNDAY

in Ordinary Time

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Corinthians 2:6-10

Expert Advice

An expert can quickly solve problems you may spend hours trying to figure out. If you cannot get the software to work on your computer, for example, you might waste a lot of time trying to figure out what is wrong. But someone who knows the software can fix it up in a snap. The same is true of everyday crises from car repair to plumbing. Experts seem to have a different kind of wisdom. We are blessed when they share it.

We each have some wisdom we can share, too. Other people need our experience, advice, and love. Each of us has solved some of life's problems in a way that would help some others to know.

It is most true of God. God has a wisdom beyond what we have learned. The puzzles of life cannot be solved by our own experience or reason. Some things we turn over to the maker of life, trusting in the divine plan.

Paul tells the Corinthians, "We speak God's wisdom, mysterious, hidden, which God predetermined before the ages for our glory." God has prepared things for us that we cannot experience now. Our sight and hearing help us appreciate the world around us, but in the end they will fail. God's goodness is beyond what we can imagine.

When we need an expert, someone to help us solve the puzzles of life, we turn ourselves over to the wisdom of God.

Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our Catholic Appeal Begins February 15-16th

OUR CATHOLIC APPEAL for our people,
our ministries,
our future

This weekend we begin Our Catholic Appeal. Letters have been sent out from the Diocese, so if you have already sent in your pledge you do not have to fill out an envelope this weekend. Everyone else should decide your pledge amount so you can fill out the envelope this weekend or the next.

Our Catholic Appeal is an annual opportunity for every member of the faith family to support the life-changing work of the Diocese of Orlando. Gifts to Our Catholic Appeal fund a wide variety of ministries that serve the nine counties of the diocese in ways that no parish could accomplish alone. Gifts to Our Catholic Appeal are the sole source of funding for 28 ministries that benefit every parish, mission and school in the diocese in addition to providing critical support for outreach programs such as Catholic Charities of Central Florida, Hope Community Center, and schools in the Diocese of San Juan de la Maguana in the Dominican Republic.

Our Catholic Appeal supports ministries to help young people know Jesus, grow in faith, and develop Christian leadership skills. Diocesan events such as the World Youth Day pilgrimage, FOCUS 11 vocation retreats, and the Life Rally, provide youth with an opportunity to encounter God. Your supports funds training for youth ministers and other educators.

Through gifts to our Catholic Appeal, Catholic Charities of Central Florida helps more than 100,000 people each year with food, housing, healthcare, and adoption services. Working in partnership with parishes, families in crisis are treated with dignity as they receive personalized case management to return to self-sufficiency. Last year, Catholic Charities also provided financial assistance to victims of the Pulse tragedy and reunited refugee families.

With the support of Our Catholic Appeal teachers at all Catholic schools within the Diocese of Orlando receive ongoing formation and professional development. This training ensures that diocesan schools proclaim the Gospel message within an environment of excellence. We challenge students to be creative and critical thinkers who integrate faith, moral leadership and compassionate service in order to create a more just and humane world.
