For Reflection:

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from the Book of Exodus 22:20-26. These verses cover the Israelites' duties toward strangers (non-Israelites), widows and orphans and the poor in general. They are a practical application of the law of charity in their dealings with their neighbors.

The second reading is from the first Letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians 1:5c-10. St. Paul continues to praise the Thessalonians, not only for accepting the faith in difficult circumstances, but for the wonderful example their Christian life had already given to most of Greece.

The Gospel is from Matthew 22:34-40. The Pharisees may not have had evil intentions when asking Christ the question as to the greatest commandment. But they have done us a good service by getting this crystal clear answer from him. In this answer he tells us that the man who loves God and neighbor fulfills all his obligations, and carries out all the duties that God's self-revelation in "the law and the prophets" imposes on him. God revealed himself to us in the Old Testament as our Creator and divine benefactor. He had no need of us, since he is infinitely perfect in himself, but out of his infinite goodness he wished to share his eternal kingdom of happiness with mankind and so he created us.

No Christian, worthy of the name, can ever be among such thoughtless and thankless people. We have greater proofs of God's love for us than "the law and the prophets" gave to the Israelites. Where Christians can, and too often do fail, is in their true love of neighbor. Yet Christ says that this commandment is like the first. Love of neighbor is an essential part of our obligations toward God. If we fail in this we fail in our love for God, for we refuse to carry out this sacred duty

Let each one of us ask himself today how seriously he takes this law of fraternal charity and how faithfully he carries it out. Not all of us may be able to give material help to a neighbor in need but the poorest of us can spare a kindly word, an encouraging word, for a neighbor weighed down with cares and troubles. All of us can pray for a neighbor who needs spiritual and temporal help. Most of us can deny ourselves some unnecessary luxuries in order to give a needed loaf of bread to a hungry fellowman, while those who have an abundance of this world's goods need not look far afield to find cases and causes worthy of their Christian charity.

Remember that whatever spiritual or material help is given out of true charity to a neighbor in need, is given to God, and whatever is given to God is soundly invested in heaven, and heaven pays handsome dividends.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Father Chris:

St. Teresa Church humbly asks for your prayers and support as we work to cover the unexpected and exceeding costs of paving our parking lot and refencing the ditch on the South side of the parking lot.

Two incidences have occurred lately that require the installation of a new fence. Any donation, no matter the amount, would be deeply appreciated and will help us complete this important project for our church community.

The new Parish Center roof, re-sealing of the parking lot and a few other projects totaled close to $200,000 in a short period of time.

Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and continued support of St. Teresa Church.

If you would like to donate, please use an envelope and write Church projects on it or you may also give online under church projects.

Thank you to those that have already donated to Church Projects - $108,923.00 to date.

Please make all checks payable to St. Teresa Church. God Bless!

Feast of St Jude October 28th
Why Do We Pray to St. Jude for Desperate Causes?

Around the year 60 A.D., St. Jude wrote a Gospel letter to recent Christian converts in Eastern churches who were under persecution. In it, he warned them against the pseudo-teachers of the day who were spreading false ideas about the early Christian faith. He encouraged them to persevere in the face of the harsh, difficult circumstances they were in, just as their forefathers had done before them. He exhorted them to keep their faith and to stay in the love of God as they had been taught. His inspirational support of these early believers led to him becoming the patron saint of desperate causes.

He is the patron of impossible causes because the Scriptural Letter of Jude urges Christians to persevere in difficult times. Also, St. Bridget of Sweden was directed by Our Lord to turn to St. Jude with great faith and confidence. In a vision, Christ told St. Bridget, "In accordance with his surname, Thaddeus, the amiable or loving, he will show himself most willing to give help." He is the patron of the impossible because Our Lord identified him as a saint ready and willing to assist us in our trials.

Those who come to him in faith in their time of need have always been given some sign, grace, answer, or consolation that their prayers were heard. In fact, the name "Jude" means "giver of joy," while "Thaddeus" means "generous" and "kind."

News from St. Vincent de Paul Orlando:

You know that phrase: When it rains, it pours. Samantha, a single mom of two young children, knows this all too well. Samantha lost her job and almost lost her apartment and called us desperate for help.

We visited with her; made sure she had food in the frig and we helped with the rent. Please join us in praying for Samantha and her family as she is looking for a new job. Learn more about us: SVDPOrlando.org

All Saints and All Soul's Day

There will be an All Souls Mass on Nov. 2nd at 7 PM in remembrance of all parishioners who have died this past year. Candles will be lit by relatives or friends of the deceased loved ones. Anyone that wants to light a candle for any deceased may do so after the names of this past year are called.

Others are also invited to light a candle after the names are called for those from this past year.

All Soul's Day envelopes are available in the back of the church.

If you would like to have loved ones names included in the Novena, please return as soon as possible that they may be placed on the altar.

Knights of Columbus Council 5667 is having a Canned Food Drive in the month of October to help supplement Cor Jesu for the upcoming holiday season.

Please drop off your canned food or non-perishable food items in the Narthex of the Church before or after Mass. There will be a brown box labeled "K of C" for you to drop your contributions in.

Thank you for helping feed as many families as possible this holiday season!

Annual Baby Bottle Campaign

Our annual Baby Bottle Campaign for BETA's Pregnancy Center will end the last of October.

Kindly begin saving your coins and/or dollars or checks to put in the baby bottle(s). This drive helps a great deal to keep their doors open.

Do not place them back in the baskets by the exits. Your donations help them to keep their doors open. If you take a bottle but chose to not fill, please return the bottles for future use.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

Life's Prayer

If our prayer is not as satisfying as we wish, there may be a problem. Some people think God is the problem—that God does not listen to us when we pray. Some people think the prayer is the problem—that the prayer is too boring or out of touch.

But sometimes the problem is neither with God nor with our prayer. The problem is with the other things we do. Prayer does not exist in a vacuum. It works best when it is coupled with a life of charity.

The Book of Sirach says God hears the cry of the oppressed. Those who suffer injustice will have their prayer heard. It is not just because they are victims. It is because they live justly. You would think that those who live justly should be rewarded for it. It does not always work that way. Sometimes the just suffer unfairly. God has mercy on them and listens to their prayer, Sirach says, not just because of the oppressor, but because of their righteousness. “The one who serves God willingly is heard.”

If our prayer seems unsatisfying, the problem might be not in the way we pray, but in the way we live. If we live justly and do charity for others, our prayer will be heard. We may still suffer oppression, but God will hear the prayer of the innocent. It pierces the clouds.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Happy ALL Hallows Eve
Should we as Catholics celebrate Halloween?

Halloween is historically a Catholic celebration rooted in All Hallows' Eve, the vigil of All Saints' Day (November 1), and part of the Allhallowtide triduum that includes All Souls' Day (November 2). It originated as a religious observance honoring saints and praying for the faithful departed, long before modern secular or spooky customs developed.

Halloween is short for All Hallow's Eve. It is the vigil of All Saints (All Hallows) Day. All Saints Day is a Holy Day of Obligation, and thus a major feast on the Catholic Church's liturgical calendar.

Halloween (October 31st) is connected with All Saints Day (November 1st) and All Souls Day (November 2nd). Halloween is, therefore, the first day of Allhallowtide, the time of year when the living honors all the dead in Christ: all the saints in heaven as well as all the holy souls detained in purgatory on their way to heaven. It is a beautiful celebration of the communion of saints!

Halloween begins the celebration of Catholic, and therefore Christian, holy days that remind the faithful of the reality of heaven and hell, the saints and the damned, demons and angels, and the holy souls suffering in purgatory.

It is true that Halloween has been badly corrupted and hyper-commercialized just like Christmas and Easter, but, just as that should never stop Catholics from fully celebrating the great feasts of the Church the Catholic way, neither should it stop Catholics from enjoying Halloween as a celebration of the great feast of All Saints.

To avoid superstition and any negative influence of the occult, Halloween should not be honored or celebrated apart from Catholic truth (in the same way we should keep the birth of Christ at the center of Christmas, and the Resurrection of Christ at the center of Easter).
